Paul R. Miller, M.D.

Dr. Paul R. Miller brings to Pacific Clinical Research Medical Group a wealth of clinical, academic and research experience from his long and varied career. Dr. Miller has conducted clinical trials targeting Major Depressive Disorder, Treatment-Resistant Depression, General Anxiety Disorder, Bipolar Disorder, Insomnia and Smoking Cessation. He is certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology and is a Distinguished Life Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association.

Dr. Miller has been practicing psychiatry in Southern California since 1981, serving in a variety of capacities such as Chief of Inpatient Psychiatry at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center in Torrance, California and as a psychiatrist for the L.A. County Department of Mental Health, including as a staff psychiatrist in L.A. County's Crisis Evaluation Unit in Norwalk, California.

In addition to his substantial clinical practice, Dr. Miller has worked extensively in the realm of academic psychiatry. He has taught at such distinguished institutions as Northwestern University Medical School in Chicago and Roosevelt University in Chicago, and has published extensively in peer-reviewed psychiatry journals.
